

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, As a former businessman and farmer, Earl Gieser has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, On October 29, Earl Gieser will be inducted into the South Dakota Baseball Hall of Fame for his contribution to the sport as a player, coach, umpire and manager; and,

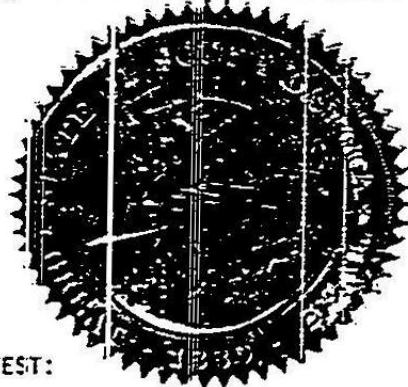

WHEREAS, Earl has been, and still is, active in working with boys and girls sports, and also devotes time to keeping the Brandt town park and ball diamond in good condition; and,

WHEREAS, On November 5, Earl will be honored by the community with a reception, and it is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of the momentous occasions in the lives of South Dakota's citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 5, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join with Earl's friends and relatives in congratulating him on this great achievement.

ATTEST:

Joyce Hazeltime
